Report on Youth Festival "JALLOSH" 2024

District-Level Intercollegiate Festival Organized under Savitribai Phule Pune University and the Board of Students' Development

"Savitribai Phule Pune University" (SPPU) is proud to announce its organization of JALLOSH 2024, an intercollegiate Youth Festival at the district level, in collaboration with Pratibha College of Commerce and Computer Studies (PCCCS), held on 23rd September 2024. This vibrant event provided a platform for students from various colleges to showcase their talents across multiple domains, fostering cultural unity and exchange. There were many colleges participating in this event, which witnessed enthusiastic participation from students of diverse disciplines and was a resounding success. Among the talented participants, Neeraj Kulkarni, a First-Year B.Com student from Pimpri Chinchwad Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Ravet, Pune, secured the second position in the Swarvadya (Indian Classical Instrument) competition, impressing everyone with his skillful flute performance."

The festival encompassed a wide range of cultural, artistic, literary, and fine arts activities, categorized as follows:

Music Section:

PCACS students participated in various musical talents and won accolades in Indian Classical Instrumental Non-Percussion (Swarvadya), where Neeraj Kulkarni secured the second position playing the flute.

Literary Section:

PCACS students showcased their eloquence and debate skills in the Quiz event, where participants including Pradnya Gadhawe, Aryan Sonawane, and Shravani Kumawat shone brightly. Their knowledge and articulate arguments made the event both engaging and insightful, reflecting the high level of talent within the college. It was a fantastic opportunity for students to demonstrate their skills in a competitive yet supportive environment!

Theatre Section:

This section showcased engaging performances in skits that addressed important social issues. Our college team, consisting of Harshanjali Shimpi, Abhijeet Apotikar, Rohit Shendge, Krushna Kamthe, Manoj

Ramina, Yash Aware, Pranav Kulkarni, and Yogita Tawade, delivered powerful and thought-provoking performances. Their creativity and dedication highlighted the significance of these issues and left a lasting impression on the audience.

Fine Arts Section:

The Fine Arts events provided a fantastic platform for students to showcase their creativity. Rohit Shendge stood out with an excellent poster that truly captured the spirit of the event. Vaishnavi Shinde impressed everyone with her beautiful Rangoli design, showcasing her artistic skills. Additionally, Harshanjali Shimpi participated in the Mehndi competition, demonstrating her talent and creativity. Overall, it was a wonderful celebration of artistic expression!

Conclusion

The JALLOSH 2024 Youth Festival at Pratibha Group of Colleges was a remarkable success, providing students with unforgettable memories and experiences. It served as an excellent platform for students to display their talents, engage with their peers, and foster a sense of camaraderie and unity. The event not only showcased the vibrant culture of the college but also set a high benchmark for future festivals.
