

PIMPRI-CHINCHWAD EDUCATION TRUST'S
Pimpri Chinchwad College of Arts, Commerce and Science
Sr. No. 110, Gat No.01, Ravet, Pimpri-
Chinchwad, Pune – 412101 Email-id –
sbpc.science@gmail.com Website –
www.pcacspune.com
Contact – 9767199039

Report on Garba and Dandiya Celebration at PCACS

Date: 9th October 2024

Venue: PCACS Senior College Campus, Ravet

Event: Navratri Garba and Dandiya Celebration

Navratri, a vibrant and cherished Hindu festival observed annually in autumn, was celebrated with great zeal and excitement at the of PCACS Senior College on 9th October 2024. The occasion, which marks a celebration of devotion, tradition, and unity, saw a spectacular Garba and Dandiya event, bringing the entire college together in joyful harmony.

Event Overview:

The celebration was well-attended by , Principal Maam Dr Smriti Pathak ,Faculty members, Non-teaching staff and enthusiastic students, all adorned in colorful, traditional attire. The entire college came alive with energy as participants embraced the spirit of Navratri through dance and music.

Event Highlights:

- 1. Participation and Enthusiasm: The event was marked by an overwhelming response from students and faculty alike, who took part in the festivities with boundless enthusiasm. The traditional Garba and Dandiya dances were the highlights of the day, with students showcasing their skills and joyfully dancing to the beats of high-energy music.
- 2. Coordination and Student Involvement: The students took charge of coordinating the event, ensuring smooth flow and organization. Their efforts contributed significantly to the success of the celebration, as they managed activities, music, refreshments, and crowd engagement with impressive coordination.

3. Faculty and Staff Involvement: Teachers and non-teaching staff members joined in the fun, dancing alongside students and adding to the lively spirit of the occasion. It was heartwarming to see such unity, with everyone participating in the cultural event wholeheartedly.

4. Traditional Costumes and Refreshments: The event was a visual treat, with students dressed in vibrant, traditional Garba ensembles. As they danced to the tunes, others were seen enjoying refreshments and engaging in conversations, creating a festive and communal atmosphere on campus.

5. Cultural Unity: The celebration not only highlighted the cultural diversity of the college but also brought students and staff together in a shared experience of joy and tradition, showcasing the essence of Indian culture.

Conclusion:

The Garba and Dandiya celebration was a day of immense joy and togetherness for the entire PCACS community. Students, teaching staff, and non-teaching staff shared moments of bonding, laughter, and unity through dance, music, and celebration. The event was a true reflection of the college's commitment to promoting cultural harmony and celebrating diversity.

Quote:

"The greatness of a culture can be found in its festival."

— Siddharth Katragadda

This celebration will be remembered as a day that beautifully highlighted the cultural richness of Navratri while strengthening the bonds within the PCACS family.

Embracing tradition and unity through vibrant colors and dance, these smiles light up the festival with pure enthusiasm.

"Faculty members coming together to celebrate culture and tradition with grace and joy!"

Faculty and students come together, dressed in vibrant, festive attire, celebrating culture with warmth and joy.

Moments like these create cherished memories, making every festival more special.