Report on Visit of Goonj a Non-Profit Organization to PCACS

Date of Visit: 23/11/24

Location: PCCOER

Event Coordinators: Ishtpreet madam

Pimpri Chinchwad Education Trust's Pimpri Chinchwad college of Arts commerce and science organised Session of Goonj organisation for all students under the guidance of IQAC

On 23rd November 2024, a team from Goonj organization visited PCACS to engage with students and raise awareness about their cause. The visit aimed to provide students with insights into the work the organization does, its impact on the community, and opportunities for students to contribute to social causes. The event was organized by Representative of Goonj.

Purpose of the Visit

The main objectives of the visit were:

To introduce students to the mission and activities of Goonj.

To highlight how students can get involved in social initiatives, whether through volunteering, internships, or partnerships.

To encourage a spirit of social responsibility and awareness among students.

The session began with a presentation by Himanshu, a representative from Goonj. The speaker provided an overview of the organization's history, core values, and ongoing projects.

Key highlights included:

The organization's focus on education, environmental conservation, health, poverty alleviation, etc.

Success stories and case studies of individuals or communities positively impacted by the organization's initiatives.

A breakdown of how students can contribute through different channels, such as volunteer programs, advocacy campaigns, and fundraising activities.

After the presentation, there was an interactive Q&A session where students asked questions about the organization's work and discussed potential collaboration opportunities with the college. Students were particularly interested in how they could balance their academic commitments with social work, and the organization shared advice on time management and finding meaningful opportunities.

Conclusion

The visit of Goonj to PCACS was a successful and impactful event. It not only increased awareness about the organization's vital work but also inspired students to take an active role in contributing to social causes. The students were encouraged to consider how they could apply their skills and knowledge to help address the challenges faced by marginalized communities and promote positive social change.
