

Teachers' Day Celebration Report

Date: September 5, 2024

Time: 11:00 AM – 4:00 PM

Location: SBPCS Auditorium, followed by PCACS Senior College

Introduction

On September 5, 2024, Teachers' Day was commemorated with great enthusiasm and respect in honor of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, the second President of India, renowned philosopher, and esteemed educator. This annual event acknowledges the crucial role that teachers play in shaping the future of students and celebrates their dedication and hard work.

Event Overview

Morning Session: SBPCS Auditorium

The day began with a formal celebration at the SBPCS Auditorium, starting at 11:00 AM. The event was organized to honor the commitment and contributions of educators. The Principal delivered a welcome speech, highlighting the significance of Teachers' Day and expressing deep gratitude to the teaching staff.

Celebration Highlights:

- Welcome Speech: The Principal set the tone for the event by emphasizing the importance of Teachers' Day and acknowledging the profound impact of educators on students' lives.
- Student Performances: A diverse range of performances was presented by students, including songs, dances, and skits. These performances showcased the students' appreciation and respect for their teachers.

Afternoon Session: PCACS Senior College

The celebrations continued at PCACS Senior College from 2:00 PM, where senior College students further honored their teachers with additional activities and expressions of appreciation.

Feedback and Conclusion

The Teachers' Day celebration was a resounding success, reflecting the deep appreciation and respect within our school community for its educators. Feedback from both teachers and students was overwhelmingly positive, with many expressing their joy and gratitude for the thoughtfully organized events. The celebration not only recognized the hard work of teachers but also strengthened the bond between students and educators.
