Report on Garba Celebration

The Cultural Committee of PCACS College, Ravet, organized a vibrant Navratri Celebration on 1st October 2025. The event brought together students, faculty, and staff in a joyous atmosphere filled with music, dance, and cultural enthusiasm. The celebration aimed to promote Indian tradition and unity among students while highlighting the spirit of the festive season.

The college campus was beautifully decorated with colorful drapes, lights, and festive elements that created an energetic and traditional ambiance. Students came dressed in traditional attire, adding to the charm of the event. The celebration began with an auspicious prayer to Goddess Durga, seeking blessings for prosperity and happiness.

Following the prayer, everyone gathered to enjoy Garba, the traditional dance form of Gujarat. Students enthusiastically participated, dancing in circles to rhythmic Garba tunes and festive beats. There were no competitions; instead, the focus was on togetherness, enjoyment, and celebrating the cultural essence of Navratri. The event radiated positivity and inclusiveness as students from various courses came together to celebrate as one family.

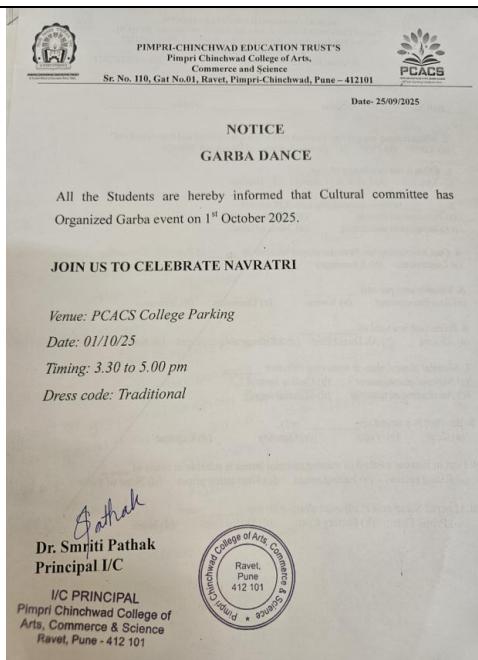

The celebration concluded with words of appreciation from the faculty members, acknowledging the efforts of the Cultural Committee for organizing such a joyful and well-managed event. The Navratri celebration at PCACS College, Ravet, was a memorable day filled with energy, unity, and cultural pride, leaving everyone with smiles and festive cheer.
