DAY - 1

The induction program for first-year students at PCACS, Ravet, was organized to warmly welcome the new batch and provide them with an overview of the academic journey ahead.

The morning session began with a formal orientation and inauguration ceremony, where the students were introduced to the institution's vision, values, and academic culture. This was followed by an insightful session by Dr. Sunil Joshi (CMA), who shared valuable knowledge on professional development, ethics, and the importance of goal-setting in student life.

The afternoon session featured a motivational talk by Harshavardhan Gaikwad (CS), Founder of Harshavardhan Gaikwad Professional Academy. He inspired the students with his journey from student life to becoming a successful entrepreneur and educator. His engaging style and practical insights into the field of commerce and company secretaryship were highly appreciated by the audience.

The induction program marked a positive and inspiring beginning for the students, setting the tone for a productive academic year ahead.

DAY – 3

The third day of the induction program at PCACS, Ravet, was marked by sessions that focused on leadership, national values, and student development.

The morning session was conducted by Ms. Neelam Kaushal, Director of Gurukul IAS (The Creator Foundation), President of the Indian Veterans Organization (Pune District), and a noted educationalist. She addressed the students on the significance of discipline, patriotism, and goal-oriented learning. Her inspiring words encouraged students to dream big and stay committed to their ambitions while contributing positively to society and the nation.

In the afternoon session, students attended a session organized by the Student Development Cell, conducted by Prof. Sachin Varpe, Assistant Professor and Student Development Officer (SDO) at PCCOER and Dr Mahendra Salunke, Assistant Professor and SDO at PCCOER. He enlightened the students about the various activities and schemes under the SDC aimed at fostering personality development, leadership skills, and social awareness. The session also emphasized the importance of active participation in extracurricular and co-curricular engagements throughout the academic year.

Day 3 of the program effectively motivated students to take charge of their academic and personal growth while understanding their role as responsible youth in nation-building.

DAY – 4

The morning session began with a Medical Check-up Camp organized in collaboration with Ojas Hospital. All first-year students were given a general health screening to ensure their well-being as they begin their academic journey. The camp emphasized the importance of preventive healthcare and personal hygiene.

Alongside the check-up, a Blood Donation Campaign was successfully conducted by PCACS College in association with Poona Serological Institute Blood Centre. Staff, senior students, and newly inducted students participated enthusiastically in this noble cause, demonstrating a strong sense of social responsibility. The initiative aimed to instill the value of community service among the youth.

The afternoon session was filled with excitement as the college hosted the Freshers' Welcome program. Senior students warmly welcomed the newcomers with an entertaining lineup of performances, including dances, ramp walks, and engaging games. The event created a vibrant and inclusive atmosphere, helping students build connections and feel at home.

The final day of the induction program concluded on a high note, combining health awareness, community service, and celebration—providing students with a well-rounded and memorable start to their academic life.

DAY – 5

The fifth and final day of the induction program at PCACS, Ravet, was centered around environmental awareness and community engagement.

Students were taken on a visit to Durga Tekdi, a popular ecological and recreational spot in Nigdi, Pune. The visit aimed to help students connect with nature, understand the importance of preserving green spaces, and promote mental well-being through time spent in natural surroundings.

As part of the program, a Tree Plantation Drive was organized in collaboration with Sakal YIN (Young Inspirators Network). Students enthusiastically participated in planting saplings, contributing towards a greener and healthier environment. The initiative served as a practical lesson in sustainability and environmental responsibility.

The activity-filled day allowed students to bond outside the classroom, fostering a spirit of teamwork, awareness, and civic duty.
