

PIMPRI-CHINCHWAD EDUCATION TRUST'S
Pimpri Chinchwad College of Arts, Commerce and Science
Sr. No. 110, Gat No.01, Ravet, Pimpri
Chinchwad,
Pune – 412101 www.pcacspune.com

Report on the Drive to Masti Ki Pathshala

Date of Event: 21st March 2025

Organized By: Pimpri Chinchwad College of Arts, Commerce, and Science (YIN Club Activity)

Introduction

On the 21st of March, 2025, the students of Pimpri Chinchwad College of Arts, Commerce, and Science, through the YIN Club, organized a heartwarming charitable drive to support Masti Ki Pathshala, an initiative that focuses on providing education and care to underprivileged children. The purpose of this drive was to collect and distribute essential supplies to the children, ensuring that they have the resources necessary for their learning and overall well-being.

The event was aimed at fostering social responsibility and community service among the students while also contributing to a noble cause. The following activities were carried out as part of the drive:

Distribution of Notebooks and Stationery: Students collected and distributed notebooks, pens, pencils, and other stationery items to the children at Masti Ki Pathshala, ensuring they have the tools to continue their education.

Juices and Fruits Distribution: Along with the educational supplies, the students also distributed refreshing juices and nutritious fruits to the children, ensuring they are hydrated and energized for their studies.

Fundraising Efforts: A significant part of the drive was the fundraising initiative. The total amount collected for donations was ₹5,000. This amount will be used for the further welfare and educational support of the children at Masti Ki Pathshala.

Impact of the Event

The drive had a significant impact on the children of Masti Ki Pathshala. The students' efforts in providing essential educational materials and nourishing food helped in uplifting the children's spirits and contributed to their well-being. Moreover, the donation collected will further support the school in its ongoing efforts to provide quality education and care to underprivileged children.

The event also proved to be a valuable experience for the participating students, as they got the chance to actively contribute to their community and understand the importance of social welfare.

Conclusion

The charitable drive organized by the YIN Club of SAKAL under Pimpri Chinchwad College of Arts, Commerce, and Science was a resounding success. It not only brought joy and support to the children of Masti Ki Pathshalla but also fostered a sense of social responsibility among the students. The total amount of ₹5,000 collected will go a long way in ensuring the continued education and support of these children. The event was a true reflection of the college's commitment to making a positive impact on society and empowering future generations.

This success would not have been possible without the persistent efforts of the Principal, Ma'am, whose leadership, guidance, and encouragement were crucial in making this event come to life.

Learning is overrated. Let's go to Masti Ki Pathshala and just live in the moment!

The greatest gift you can give is love and support. Together, we can create a world of compassion and care."

Students Playing games with children

Masti Ki Pathshala

Children Excitement after distribution of gifts